2012 Committee Registration

The Gordon Association of REALTORS® needs you to become an active member in the association! Please take this opportunity to fill out the form below. Please rank in order which committee(s) you are interested in joining.

Rank	Committee	Duties/Responsibilities
_____	Awards	This committee reviews Circle of Honor (COH) rules and examines COH applications to qualify them for approval by the Board of Directors. Additionally, the Board's Annual Awards are reviewed each year and amended as needed. This committee also plans the annual awards celebration.
_____	Community Service	This committee plans and organizes community service projects. It organizes and supervises special Board functions as instructed by the Board of Directors and encourages Member participation in these events.
_____	Education	This committee plans and schedules new member orientation programs and continuing education classes.
_____	Governmental Affairs & RPAC	This committee reviews legislation and recommends political action to protect the interests of REALTORS®, our industry, and our clients. It shapes the formulation of local laws and regulations through professional lobbying, grassroots advocacy, and supporting the election of pro-REALTOR® candidates for public office. This committee raises funds and recommends disbursements for the REALTORS® Political Action Committee (RPAC).
_____	Membership	This committee recruits new affiliate members, REALTOR® members and promotes the REALTOR® image.
_____	Public Relations	To help assist with press releases and promote Board activities to the members and to increase in a positive manner the public's perception of REALTORS® and of the Gordon Association of REALTORS®.

Thank you for your interest and participation with the Gordon Association of REALTORS®.
